The Message Of Acts (Bible Speaks Today)

Synopsis

A 1991 Christianity Today Readers' Choice Award The Spirit moves the church into the world. That is how it has always been since the day of Pentecost when the Spirit brought thousands from many countries into the body of Christ. With the breadth and scholarly care that have marked John Stott's years of ministry, this book opens to us the early days of the church as recorded by Luke in the book of Acts. The experiences of the early church have much to say about issues that concern Christians today. What can Acts tell us about tongues and other extraordinary manifestations of the Spirit? How should churches structure themselves--with elders, deacons, pastors or all three? What should a normal Christian conversion look like? And, of course, how should the church reach out into the world with the message of salvation? These and many other topics are handled with a pastoral heart and an unwavering commitment to the authority of God's Word in our lives. As Stott concludes, "The Acts of the Apostles have long ago finished; the acts of the followers of Jesus will continue until the end of the world."

John R. W. Stott (1921-2011) has been known worldwide as a preacher, evangelist and communicator of Scripture. For many years he served as rector of All Souls Church in London, where he carried out an effective urban pastoral ministry. A leader among evangelicals in Britain, the United States and around the world, Stott was a principal framer of the landmark Lausanne

Covenant (1974). His many books have sold millions of copies around the world and in dozens of languages. Stott's best-known work, Basic Christianity, has sold two million copies and has been translated into more than 60 languages. Other titles include The Cross of Christ, Understanding the Bible, The Contemporary Christian, Evangelical Truth, Issues Facing Christians Today, The Incomparable Christ, Why I Am a Christian and Through the Bible Through the Year, a daily devotional. He has also written eight volumes in The Bible Speaks Today series of New Testament expositions. Whether in the West or in the Two-Thirds World, a hallmark of Stott's ministry has been expository preaching that addresses the hearts and minds of contemporary men and women. Stott was honored by Time magazine in 2005 as one of the "100 Most Influential People in the World" and was named in the Queen's New Years Honours list as Commander of the Order of the British Empire. In 1969, Stott founded the Langham Trust to fund scholarships for young evangelical leaders from the Majority World. He then founded the Evangelical Literature Trust, which provided books for students, pastors and theological libraries in the Majority World. These two trusts continued as independent charities until 2001, when they were joined as a single charity: the Langham Partnership. Langham's vision continues today to see churches in the Majority World equipped for mission and growing to maturity in Christ through nurturing national movements for biblical preaching, fostering the creation and distribution of evangelical literature, and enhancing evangelical theological education.

Stott is adept at bringing out Acts' messages: articulate, thought provoking and enlightening. This is a commentary on Acts that every pastor must read. Stott was voted as one of the 100 most influential people in the world in 2005. His works often exude scholarly excellence and contemporary relevance. It's certain that his work will be constantly referred to in the study of Acts.

The Message of Acts (Bible Speaks Today), by John Stott, is an excellent commentary on the book of Acts. It is written in layman's language and is very readable as well as giving an accurate biblical account of this time in the history of the Christian Church. I highly recommend it to anyone who desires to have a deeper understanding of the beginning and growth of Christianity into the known world during the 1st century.

Great help as a resource when teaching through Acts. Definitely recommend!

Good product and fast shipping, I'm really enjoying this.

Looking ahead to teaching Acts to an adult Sunday School class, I purchased commentaries by the following three authors: I. Howard Marshall, F. F. Bruce, and John Stott. I would not trade, sell, or otherwise willingly get rid of any of these since all three are very helpful. If I could keep only one, it would be the one by Stott. I also have J. A. Alexander and G. Campbell Morgan and these, too, are helpful.

I love the insights I gain by reading this book. We were away from home so I ordered the electronic version so I could start reading it right away. I highly recommend it for serious study of Acts

The Message of Acts get 5 stars from me is was and eye opens for the spiritual wisdom that was reveal to the soul I have place it in the hands of 15 pastors.I highly recommended it become part of every believers collection of spiritual books of study.

Great book that is very helpful in understanding the beginnings of the Church! Demonstrates the power and importance of the Holy Spirit then in believers lives and show the critical nature of the Holy Spirit for believers today! Believers must understand and know the Holy Spirits power today.
