Teresa Goodridge is a freelance artist based in Yorkshire, England. She adores kids and illustrating children's books, games, cards, and toys. Character development is her specialty, and she has designed dozens of paper-based products for numerous companies.

This is the fourth book in a series of seasonal coloring books by Teresa Goodridge. For me, each of the books has been even better than the one before. As autumn is my favorite time of year (with changing colors of leaves, the last of vegetables being harvested and the holidays approaching.) While the colored samples are still pictures of the original watercolor artwork rather than colored samples of the actual designs in the book, I don't have the issues with tiny details that I had in the first book in the series. I'm able to use all types of coloring medium with this book, which makes it a real pleasure to color in. The designs are exactly what I would hope for in book about autumn. I really like that as I have had problems finding a good autumn coloring book up till now. The designs have lots of trees for coloring the change of leaf colors, pumpkins and other harvest items, Thanksgiving, Halloween and even a football scene. The designs are quite detailed and some few do contain intricate and small areas to color. There are less of the intricate portions in this book than in the prior ones. I noticed that the feel of the paper is slightly smoother than some of the Creative Haven books I have received recently. I've noticed that the paper seems to change quite frequently on these books. Because of that, if you buy one of these books, it may be slightly smooth or slightly rough depending on when and where it was printed. Colored pencils still work well with the slightly smoother paper (see below.) This is what I experienced while coloring in this book and testing the paper with my coloring medium.

31 Autumn inspired Designs by Teresa Goodridge

The designs are printed one side of the page

Paper is the usual Creative Haven quality: white, medium weight, slightly smooth and has perforated pages. Glue Binding but with perforated pages so removing a page is fairly simple. The designs stop well before the perforations. Most, but not all, of the designs have a framing line at the outer edges. Some simply stop with no line and I wish that they had put the framing line around those as well.

Alcohol-based markers bleed through this paper

Water-based markers bleed through in spots and show colorful shadows on the back of the page

Gel pens and India ink pens leave shadows of color on the back of the page. India ink pens can bleed through when I apply more than one layer of ink.

Coloring pencils work well with this paper. I was able to get good pigment (color) lay down, layer the same color and multiple colors and to blend easily using a pencil style blender. I tested both oil and wax-based pencils with similar results. Hard lead pencils, like Verithins, leave dents on the back of the page. I suggest either removing pages from the book to color or using a blotter page under your working page. I like card stock as it keeps ink from seeping through and damaging the pages below.

Creative Haven never fails to deliver! Beautiful fall images. Mostly quite complex with detail so shading and blending is going to keep me busy. I can almost smell the woodsmoke and feel the snap of autumn in the air. I live in the tropics and the only thing I miss about the mainland weather is autumn. My favorite season.

I have close to 100 coloring books -- this is by far one of my favorites -- beautiful with an excellent grade of paper.

I've loved every book I've received by Creative Haven!

If you love scenery pictures to color, this book is for you. There are approximately 31 pages. Each picture is single sided. The paper is pretty thick but if you use markers you will still need to put a folder or blotch sheet between pages. I had this book preordered and couldn't wait to get it. Received the book today and had to color a page. I use markers. I feel the artist did a good job with the picture designs in this book.

I couldn't wait for this book to come out . I ordered it the day it did . The pictures are amazing art work and every book she makes is just as great as the last . I have every book she makes and each other has very awesome art work . I love scenery and season coloring . Autumn is my favorite time of the year so I was super stoked when I found out about this one. Over 30 pages to color . Highly recommend it to anyone and once again the author did an amazing job on this book!

Summary:"Autumn Scenes" contains 31 full size designs and an introductory page. It measures 8.25 by 11 inches and is glue bound into a laminated cover. Featuring a variety of seasonal line drawings, this book is appropriate for adult colorists on all skill levels.Paper:The paper in this book is bright white and slightly heavier than standard copy weight. Pages are single sided and perforated. All mediums should be okay to use, but anything wet may cause bleedthrough. As always, be sure to place several blotter sheets under your current picture to prevent color transfer.Artwork:As the title implies, "Autumn Scenes" features illustrations inspired by the season. Inside you'll see falling leaves, pumpkins, cornucopias, acorns, turkeys, and more. There is a decent mix of both picture and pattern pages- all of which are surrounded by a double line border and end before reaching the edges of the page. Print quality is well done and detail level varies a bit throughout. Picture completion time should range from 3-7 hours(may be slightly different for each individual). Overall, this is another nice installment from Creative Haven. It would be best suited for colorists who enjoy peaceful/nature inspired imagery.

I'll be 53 years old in September. I love to color. I bought a coloring book for the other 3 seasons and I couldn't wait to get this one. Looking forward to coloring in all 4 of the seasons coloring books. Highly recommend.
