The Sorceress's Pet

Synopsis

Sorceress Sera is outraged at the king's order to train his daughter as a pet. Not that she had any problem making a sexy, pampered princess go down on her knees and obey her every whim. Hell, it would be her pleasure to show the arrogant redhead a few things while enjoying her sensual curves! But convincing the magic community at the Moon Festival that the girl was Sera's real pet is playing with fire. Sera will have to use all her feminine wiles to save the princess's life by scaring her back into her father's arms. If acting as the pet of a powerful sorceress could help free her enslaved brother, Rachel was happy to pay the price. Never did Rachel expect her sacrifice would bring not only incredible pleasure but the ultimate surrender of body and soul.

Review of: THE SORCERESS'S PET By Noa Xireau What an awesomely devilish romp through a spectacular fairy tale world populated with sensuous creatures that shine ever so brightly in the author's active imagination! WOW! This gem of a book kept me up reading last night, frantically turning the pages, and loving that I could not be sure one moment to the next what was going to happen. Exactly the right kind of distraction! The author expertly hits all the high points of this exotically crafted tale. I enjoyed the author's sometimes unusual word choice, it exactly suited this well spun tale. Thank you, Noa Xireau, I look forward, with pleasure, to your next novel.

Foremost, this book is about the sex. It's hot and fun. The writer displays command of English. The book shows submission as a caring and complex relationship that requires give and take on both sides while showing how the dominant role differs from the submissive role. The book hinted at the struggles necessary to offer and accept surrender and the long, complex and difficult process that a master and slave go through to build a loving relationship based on submission. Mostly, though, this was a fun romp. I can't wait to see how the author will develop over time. If she gains the skill to actually show that struggle rather than simply hinting at it, she may be able to go from the realm of a fun romp to something truly moving and life-changing. There are a lot of clichés in this book. It's all about the sex. In reality the sort of total submission shown grows to be far more than about a bedroom. You can't build a real relationship only on what happens sexually. And while I think the story would have been stronger if it was less predictable and played less to genre expectations, none of that really got in the way.

Good character development and plot but I had a hard time enjoying a F/F story when she magically grows a cock and uses it. It's like a straight man wrote a lesbian bdsm story.

Beautiful reading. Enjoy it a lot
