The San Juan Islands (Afoot & Afloat)

Synopsis

The popular guide to boating and other recreational activities in Washington's San Juan Islands, updated and including new quick-access features. *New sidebars on wildlife and history *New tables listing authors' favorites; best side trips; and the best places and best times to view birds, wildlife, wildflowers, and intertidal life *Driving directions and other data reformatted for "find it at a glance" use Marge and Ted Mueller are known for their intimate knowledge of the San Juans. In addition to boating (including details on launches and anchorages), the Muellers highlight opportunities for bicycling, camping, hiking, picnicking, scuba diving, beachcombing, birdwatching, and wildlife viewing. They offer their personal tips on when to go, how to get around (the ferry system, simplified!), and how best to enjoy the islands.

[T]his book will help you get [to the San Juan Islands] and lead you to some of the better attractions.
--Sequim Gazette

Marge and Ted Mueller have explored the northwest's mountains, forests, and waterways for more than forty years. They are the authors of all six titles in the Afoot & Afloat series.

Excellent !

Gave me a great overview of the Road Scholar trip I took on the San Juans.

Informative

Great little handbook to have on board your boat. Plus, generally a quick history of the San Juans

I really like this book!! It is a great reference book for any local or out of town sailor/boater wanting to sail the San Juans!!

"The San Juan Islands (Afoot and Afloat)" is indispensable to a first-time visitor to the area. From a sailing point of view, it offered much information not to be found without experience, and experiences were found, thanks to the information contained therein. It is an excellent introduction to the islands, and a fine re-orientation after a season or so away. Highly recommended!

I bought this book and Moon Guide "San Juan Islands" and the Moon book is much better. They cover many of the same places, and the Moon book has a lot of additional information on other things to see and do and how to get around.
