Circe Olson Woessner, born and raised overseas, attended the University of Maryland, Munich Campus (UMMC) from 1979-1981. It was much later, after transferring to a stateside "traditional four-year" college, that she realized that her experiences at Munich had enriched her "Weltanschauung" more than any other college could hope to.

I attended the Munich campus in the 1970s. The author touched on all the important aspects of this unique college setting. There was a great deal of drinking, partying, touring and even on occasion, attending class and studying. One of the guys in my apartment overdosed and died on heroin in our bathroom. Those were very interesting times to say the least. Amazing we survived at all. This is a great read which matches up perfectly with reality.

Boy, does this one bring back some memories! I can say with certainty that I was present at at least two of the incidents depicted in the short stories this book presents.

This book [#1, of 2; the prequel to "Noch Eins!: Tales From the Terrapin Keller"] is a collection of campus-life memories submitted by former military dependents who were enrolled in & lived on the [now-defunct] University of Maryland extension campus at McGraw Kaserne in MUNICH (W.Germany). YES, they were reaLLy fun times!!

Being at the University of Maryland's Munich Campus in the 60's was an exciting time in my life. Circe has captured so many wonderful stories of those who were fortunate enough to experience their freshman and/or sophomore years in college. I highly recommend Bavarian Creme to any of the thousands who attended.

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times." Hell; it was a non-stopbeer party. I was stationed at McGraw Kaserne and knew every place mentioned in the book. There was very little interaction between the college students and the GI's even though we were the same age and in the same place. If you went to UMMC this book is a trip down memory lane, If you didn't you just wasted thirteen bucks.
