Ghost Of A Chance

Synopsis

Anne Silver's brother had been working to expose a clever ring of swindlers when he was struck down by a car crash a clear case of attempted murder. Now Anne's determined to finish what her brother started. But she can't do it without the help of ex-CIA agent Julian Aries, a man who once betrayed her. With Julian as an unwilling conspirator, the couple goes undercover to face ghosts old and new an unsolved murder and a clever gang of fake psychics. But as Anne and Julian put their lives on the line, the icy chill of danger and a powerful desire they can no longer deny force them to confront the greatest unsolved mystery of all...their unlikely love. Kept plot on going

Great

I like just about any Krentz writes

This was a really good book. I enjoyed it. I really like Jayne Ann Krentz' books. It was an older book, but still fun to read.

Easy and fun read. One of Krentz early books but shows she has always been a great author. Has mystery and romance a hard combination to beat.

I enjoyed reading this book. It was one of a long list of books I wanted to read, and it did not let me down.

great. awesome author

A good tale to listen to in the car on long commutes to and from work - kept your attention enough not to get bored.
