Book by Gehrig, Klaus

This is a very nice story about a five-year cruise around the world on a schooner that the author built. Very entertaining with events and foreign circumstances that were faced with an open mind. Klaus and Marie-Jose were very well matched, and honest responses were made throughout their travels. At the end of their journey, Klaus had great insight on the world as a whole, and who better to judge than one who has experienced it first-hand. An enjoyable book!
