I am obsessed with your books! So glad I saw the announcement to get this book for free on Wattpad. I love your writing style huge fan. Keep up the good work you have found a loyal reader in me.

wonderful series, cant wait for more!!

503 pages. Read in one day. Enough said.*Subtracted one star because of typos - problem in all three books in the series.

The series is a fun read and gets your juices flowing. Really enjoyed these books !!!! Can't wait for more !!

This series is so painful to read, but the storyline draws you in. The sex scenes are NSFW, but I had to put the book down to laugh several times. The scenes are bizarre and physically impossible. This is billed as historical romance written with zero awareness of the time period. I don't expect historical romance to be even mostly accurate, but other than the characters using carriages instead of cars, the interactions between the monarchy, nobility and servants, the type of activities they go to (King and a servant go picnicking together), is so out of place for the timeframe. The back and forth interactions between servants and the House of Lords during meetings are bizarre. There is not a time period in history where this would have been appropriate. The King asking for a maid's opinion as she serves tea? Lots of grammar errors and typos, not worth paying for but a quick, funny read.

Good story. Hope to read other books by this writer. Looking forward to it. This series reads very easily with plenty of drama

Aj is a wonderful writer! I think this book is my favorite. Finally the truth is revealed about Madeline's family, but not without a lot of surprises along the way. Spoiler: wars, weddings, and babies. And finally ruthless Susanna Bathory meets her match!

I waited a while to for this book. I think it's worth the wait. Hope another installment comes soon! Hurry!
