Synopsis

'..Elizabeth was unsure what she was going to do, her world had just been torn upside down. Her parents were no longer there to support her and she had nowhere to turn except to put an ad in the paper. She dreaded the thought of marrying someone she did not know, she feared the thought of living on the streets of Boston. It was no place for a woman and there was nowhere for her to go except the streets if she stayed. Choosing her words carefully, she put her ad in. The simple words of â ^Marriage for Sale, Can cook, clean and tend to childrenâ ™. It was blunt and to the point. She was not looking for love, she just wanted to live..'
