Copenhagen: The Good Life: A Guide To The Usual & Unusual

Synopsis

Informed by on-the-ground research, Herb Lester's handy, folded guides uncover what makes a city special - its most distinctive shops, restaurants, caf  s, bars, museums and galleries, whether unmissable old favourites, exciting new arrivals or overlooked treasures. Each entry comes with its own brief description, and a basic map helps the reader get their bearings and make plans. This guide's 34 entries focus on Copenhagen's thriving new food scene and also on its highly evolved sense of design, the two of which frequently intersect. We include sources of mid-century cookware, cinnamon rolls and organic hot dogs, grand shops and tiny caf  s, a pleasure garden and a cemetery. It is the perfect companion for this most perfect of cities. Printed on a single sheet of 100% recycled paper, these light, portable guides are an ideal travelling companion.

Customer Reviews

Herb Lester Associates publish guides for tourists and locals: witty, pretty, curious and opinionated. We research, write, print and distribute maps and guides to the world's great cities. We seek out the well-used and much-loved, and enjoy the extraordinary as well as the everyday. Old bookshops and new coffee shops, park benches and dive bars, hat shops and haberdashers: this is the world according to Herb Lester.

Disappointed in product, especially for the price. It is a 12"x18" sheet of paper, folded. Nice graphics. Lists 34 points of interest for shopping, dining, and sights, but information are things you can find from other guide books. I feel like I got ripped off.

The map looks cool but the locations are not precise on the map ..."around this part of town." I had to use a second map to actually find the places. For that alone, I think this map is overpriced. There were not really any standout, awesome locations that were not in my standard guidebook. If the map part was improved, I would say it's cool for a 2-3 day trip and of course very light since it's one piece of paper!

This is not a map. Don't buy it with the expectation of finding your way in Copenhagen. It is a rip-off.

This is a cute little map that came in handy while we were in Copenhagen. We actually visited some of the off the beaten path locations listed on it..

Fantastic recommendations and artistically designed map. I hit many of the spots when I was in Copenhagen.
