Customer Reviews

The methods outlined in this book are exactly what I've used to generate over 500 leads per month from my website. I highly recommend you pick up this book written by someone who is actively using the same techniques taught in this book in his own life insurance business. It's time to join the digital revolution and this guide will outline the steps needed to get there.

Wow what a wonderful book. Jeff is the real deal. This book is simple, and it makes so much sense. Honestly, the concept of online marketing could not be more confusing. There are tons of articles and books about generating traffic online. However, all of that content is vague and confusing at best. I've never seen a more well laid out and clear blueprint than this. He could easily repackage this book and sell it as "SEO Made Easy". Great job Jeff, and thanks for sharing this with the world. Truthfully, the content in this book (which is the product of years of effort) is worth tens of thousands of dollars.

Jeff is the authority of all things life insurance. I have learned more from Jeff and his SellTermLife.com community than all other General Agents combined (that I have worked with). This book is an easy to follow outline of how to find customers and sell life insurance online. If you are just getting into online life insurance sales, this book will cut years off your learning curve. If you are experienced in online life sales, you will pick-up some great nuggets of actionable wisdom. I highly recommend this book and Jeff's community.

There is no such thing as a secret sauce to success, but this might be the next closest thing for the life insurance agent. There is no better, more in-depth, step-by-step and fully blatant guide than this. "The Digital Life Insurance Agent" is by far the most comprehensive guide I've ever seen for an agent, new or seasoned. This book uncovers every single nuance of the business and truly proves the change we've all been seeing over the years: the transition of an age old door-to-door agent to one who works where they want, when they want, and achieves even greater success. No stone is left unturned, and every chapter is an absolute gold mine of information to help you push every aspect of your business online, and to succeed wildly in doing so. There is no substitute for digital marketing, and the time is now. This book gives you the keys, the blueprint, and more.

I learned more in this book than I have since entering this business 3 years ago. Throughout the book, I had several "a-ha" moments that clicked and will have an immediate impact on my business. Especially valuable for me was the chapter on phone sales and finding your target market and ways to get in front of them. So many gems in this book and I'll be referring to it often. After reading this book I'm convinced I need to get serious about my online efforts as this is where the industry is headed.

Awesome resource! I haven't received this much value from anyone in our industry until now - not when I started as a captive agent and not even from my current IMO as an independent agent. I picked up a tremendous amount of valuable information from the "selling over the phone" chapter. Much of the sales advice also translates to in-person life insurance sales. I'll admit, some of the digital marketing strategies are a bit over my head. I understand more now about how it works and I realize after reading this book that this is the future of prospecting that I need to grasp. Really thankful that this book exists.

Jeff is THE AUTHORITY when it comes to generating life insurance leads online and over-the-phone. I've listened to his podcast "The Modern Life Insurance Selling" podcast for years, and I've also been a member of Jeff's community over at [...] for quite some time - I have gained a TON of knowledge from Jeff and all of his first-hand experience. Not to mention, I've had the pleasure of meeting him in-person and he's the real deal... He really wants to teach others how to do what he does. This book is the culmination of all of his secrets and it is EXTREMELY valuable. It gives step-by-step, action-oriented details on how to get the ball rolling with your own Digital Life Insurance Agency. Buy the book - You will not be disappointed!!!

This is a must read for any life insurance agent out there who wants to grow their business. I've been following Jeff Root for over a year now. I listen to his podcasts and I am a member of Sellterm.life.com. I have to say that Jeff has helped my business immensely since I started implementing his strategies. In his book The Digital Life Insurance Agent, Jeff gives invaluable guidance on how to create an online presence and thrive. I just finished reading the book. Although I have implemented many of the strategies Jeff has outlined in the book, the book has shown me that I could be doing a lot more. This book will take your business to the next level.
