Bay Islands 411 Book 2011: Vacation And Living Guide For Roatan, Utila And Guanaja, Bay Islands Of Honduras

Synopsis

A vacation, living and business guide for the Bay Islands of Honduras: Roatan the largest island, Utila, Guanaja and Cayos Cochinos. These Caribbean islands are located in the Bay of Honduras, south of Cancun, next to Guatemala and close to Belize. They are the last Caribbean islands where it is still possible to have a low cost vacation and establish a business cheaply! Add to that some real treasure hunting, and you have the perfect setting for an exciting adventure!

Danielle Vallee is a seasoned entrepreneur, public speaker and published author on the American, Canadian and European markets. She has a background in business and technology in major corporate environments, as well as extensive start-up and entrepreneurial experience. Her second career is in tourism. She fell in love with Roatan a few years ago and has made it her mission to promote the Bay Islands as the new vacation destination, and help vacationers easily avoid common pitfalls in order to have the best vacation possible. Her extended living experience and business ventures in the islands also allow her to advise business people on what to expect in this land of opportunity. Her books are published on the American market and sold worldwide. Among her other publications are "Whiz Biz in Changing Times" (DIV Publishing), "Whiz Teens in Business" (DIV Publishing), "e-Learning as a Business Asset" (WebTechPublishing), "Leading Your Business Into the Future with the Internet" (CRC Press). She is a member of the Advanced Thinkers Team that participated in the Advanced Thinkers Summit sponsored by Harvard University.
