if you are able, just order the entire collection. Hide them and dish out one by one to your little reader. These things were like currency. Seriously my son would gladly complete lessons etc to get his hands on the latest book. He's been reading and re-reading the entire series for a couple of months now. I chose these as an alternative to magic treehouse, and have no regrets about it.

These are the Magic Treehouse stories for Christian kids. Great wholesome historical Christian fiction. My 9 year old daughter has been reading them for a few years and loves them. They are one of the few stories she will read more than once.

My kids love this series! Adventurous, historical, and safe compared to other children's series out there. Highly recommend for ages 8 - 12.

Our son loves these books! He is newly 9 and has been reading them since about age 8.5. The historical elements bring about a lot of discussion and the characters embody excellent traits you would want your kids to be reading about! We have bought over half the series so far and will likely buy all of them for our son and when our daughter is older.

It's hard to find a chapter books that boys will engage in. However, my son wouldn't put these down. So worth it!

my 8 and 9 yr old love these books! I have introduced the Magic Tree House series to them as well and those do not hold their attention as much as these do ... once they finish a book they can't WAIT for the next "Patrick & Beth" book!

My 8 year old loves this book/series. I have gifted it to two other children, 7 and 9, who couldn't put it down. I have read them aloud, as well.

My ten year old loves these books. Adventures with stories of some history. She finds them fun, funny and enjoyable. Wants more.
