Howard Abadinsky is professor of criminal justice at St. John's University. A graduate of Queens College of the City University of New York, he has an MSW from Fordham University and a PhD in sociology from New York University. Prior to entering academia, he was a New York State Parole Officer and Senior Parole Officer and a Cook County, Illinois, Deputy Sheriff/Inspector. He was a consultant to the President's Commission on Organized Crime and founder of the International Association for the Study of Organized Crime. Dr. Abadinsky is the author of several books, including THE CRIMINAL ELITE: ORGANIZED AND PROFESSIONAL CRIME; PROBATION AND PAROLE: THEORY AND PRACTICE; and LAW, COURTS, AND JUSTICE IN AMERICA.

Needed for a class. Not a bad text overall but with the information and some of the events happening at the rate at they are it will be hard for nearly any book in the genre to keep up competently, but it is still well formatted and, like your syllabus says, you will learn if you read the book.

Great book. Learned so much. Very organized and well -researched.

Needed the book, bought the book. Used the book maybe 4 times.

Book was in perfect condition, was a little dirty probably from the package. Other than that, no issue.

it was excellent

Excellent book and has a detailed history of Organized Crime. I would recommend this book to any college student in criminal justice and for law enforcement officers.

This book is mandatory for my Organized Crime course. I absolutely love it. It is very interesting, very precise and easy to read and follow. Great choice, I am glad I bought it!

Great class...
